INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S AUDIT REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF FRIENDS OF NEPAL - AUSTRLIA INC.

Report on the Financial Statements

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of Friends of Nepal – Australia Inc. which comprises the statement of financial position as at 30 June 2019 and the statement of profit and loss, ended on that date, and the Committee member's declaration.

Committee Member's Responsibility for the Financial Report

The committee members of the entity are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and have determined that the basis of preparation described in Note 1 to the financial report is appropriate to meet the needs of the entity's members. The committee members' responsibility also includes such internal control that the committee determine is necessary to enable the preparation of a financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express a conclusion on the financial statements based on my examination. I conducted my audit in accordance with Australian accounting standards in order to state whether, on the basis of the procedures described, the financial statements are free from material misstatements.

An audit of a financial report consists of making enquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures.

Conclusion

In the course of my examination, nothing has come to my attention that causes me to believe that the financial statements of Friends of Nepal – Australia Inc. does not satisfy the requirements of

- a) giving a true and fair view of the registered entity's financial position as at 30 June 2019 and of its financial performance for the year ended on that date; and
- b) complying with Australian Accounting Standards to the extent described in Note 1.

Raghu Shrestha

Honorary Auditor
