Where the expression has more than one meaning in the Corporations Act and a provision of the Corporations Act deals with the same matter as a clause of this Constitution, that expression has the same meaning as in that provision.

2. Interpretation

2.2 Headings are for ease of reference only and do not affect interpretation.

3. Application of the Corporations Act and Replaceable rules

3.1 If, while the Company is a Registered Entity, the Corporations Act operates such that an Imported Provision does not apply to the Company because the Company is a Registered Entity:

- (a) a clause in the same terms as the Imported Provision, along with any relevant definitions in the Corporations Act, is deemed to be included in this Constitution and to apply to the Company to the extent the Imported Provision would have applied to the Company were the Company not a Registered Entity (Equivalent Clause); and
- (b) a reference in this Constitution to an Imported Provision is deemed to be a reference to the Equivalent Clause.

3.2 To the extent permitted by law, the replaceable rules in the Corporations Act do not apply to the Company.

4. Objects

4.1 The objects for which the Company is established, as a public benevolent institution, are to relieve the disadvantage and suffering of Disadvantaged Persons by carrying out activities that provide direct relief to Disadvantaged Persons in the form of the provision of resources and support and, for that purpose, to:

- (a) provide Disadvantaged Persons with furniture and other household items necessary to run a functional home to assist with the financial burden of escaping domestic and family violence to avoid falling into cycles of poverty;
- (b) provide interior design styling to promote dignity and enable Disadvantaged Persons to feel empowered and safe in their new home environment;

- (h) do all things that are incidental or ancillary to the attainment of the above objects.

And for the avoidance of doubt and for the purpose of section 150(1)(a) of the Corporations Act, it is confirmed that this Constitution requires the Company to pursue charitable purposes only and to apply its income in promoting those purposes.

- 4.2 The Company may only exercise the powers in section 124(1) of the Corporations Act to:

7.2 Subject to this Constitution and applicable law (including the Corporations Act), the Directors may from time to time determine, vary and replace:

- 11.5 The Directors must give notice of the postponement or cancellation of a general meeting to all persons referred to in clause 55.1 entitled to receive notices from the Company.
- 11.6 The failure or accidental omission to send a notice of a general meeting (including a proxy appointment form) to any Member or the non-receipt of a notice (or form) by any Member does not invalidate the proceedings at or any resolution passed at the general meeting.

Proceedings at general meetings

12. Member
