Notes to the Financial Statements for the year ended 30 June 2015

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial report is a special purpose financial report that has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, Australian Accounting Interpretations and other authoritative pronouncements of the Australian Accounting Standards Board. Baptist World Aid Australia Ltd is a not-for-profit entity for the purpose of preparing the financial statements.

Australian Accounting Standards set out accounting policies that the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) have concluded would result in a finance report containing relevant and reliable information about transactions, events and conditions to which they apply. Material accounting policies adopted in the preparation of this financial report are presented below. They have been consistently applied unless otherwise stated.

The financial report has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the following Australian Accounting Standards:

- AASB 110 – Events After the Balance Sheet Date; and
- AASB 1031 – Materiality.

The financial report has been prepared on an accruals basis and is based on historic costs and does not take into account changing money values, or, except where specifically stated, current valuations of non-current assets.

No other applicable Accounting Standards, Australian Accounting Interpretations or other authoritative pronouncements of the Australian Accounting Standards Board have been applied.

The following material accounting policies have been adopted in the preparation of this financial report. Other than the following, no other significant accounting policies require disclosure in this report.

(a) Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue can be reliably measured.

i. Donations and fundraising

The Group recognises amounts donated or raised on behalf of the company as income only when they are received by the company. Tax deductible and non-tax deductible donations are determined at source and treated as separate.

ii. Interest and Dividends

Interest and dividends are recognised when received/receivable.

All revenue stated is net of the amount of goods and services tax (GST).

Independent Auditor's Report To the Members of Baptist World Aid Australia Ltd

We have audited the accompanying financial report of Baptist World Aid Australia (the "Company"), which comprises the statement of financial position as at 30 June 2015, and the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information to the financial report and the statement by the Board of the Directors.

Responsibility of the Directors of the Responsible Entity for the financial report

The Directors of the Company is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report and have determined that the accounting policies used and described in Note 1 of the financial report, which form part of the financial report, are appropriate to meet the needs of the members and compliance with the Australian Charities and Not-for Profits Commission 2012. This responsibility includes such internal controls as the Directors determine are necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report to be free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards which require us to comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

Grant Thornton Audit Pty Ltd ACN 130 913 594
a subsidiary or related entity of Grant Thornton Australia Ltd ABN 41 127 556 389

'Grant Thornton' refers to the brand under which the Grant Thornton member firms provide assurance, tax and advisory services to their clients and/or refers to one or more member firms, as the context requires. Grant Thornton Australia Ltd is a member firm of Grant Thornton International Ltd (GTIL). GTIL and the member firms are not a worldwide partnership. GTIL and each member firm is a separate legal entity. Services are delivered by the member firms. GTIL does not provide services to clients. GTIL and its member firms are not agents of, and do not obligate one another and are not liable for one another's acts or omissions. In the Australian context only, the use of the term 'Grant Thornton' may refer to Grant Thornton Australia Limited ABN 41 127 556 389 and its Australian subsidiaries and related entities. GTIL is not an Australian related entity to Grant Thornton Australia Limited.

Liability limited by a scheme approved under Professional Standards Legislation. Liability is limited in those States where a current scheme applies.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error.

In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Independence

In conducting our audit, we have complied with the applicable independence requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board and the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission Act 2012.

Unqualified Auditor's Opinion

The financial report of Baptist World Aid Australia Ltd gives a true and fair view of the entity's financial position as at 30 June 2015 and of its performance for the period ended in accordance with the accounting policies described in Note 1 and the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission Act 2012 and the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission Regulation 2013.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1 to the financial report, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial report has been prepared for the purpose of fulfilling the needs of the members and the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission Act 2012. As a result, the financial report may not be suitable for another purpose.
